CHAMP® Spikes Enjoys Wins on European and LPGA Tour
CHAMP reports 20 of top 30 on FedEx Cup Standings.

Marlborough, MA – CHAMP, the company known for being the leader in innovative traction technology, reports the winner of the Samsung World Championship on the LPGA Tour was wearing CHAMP Stinger Spikes. Additionally on the European Tour, the winner of the Austrian Golf Open wore CHAMP spikes as well as 71% of the entire field.

“CHAMP congratulates both of these champions on their first wins on tour both finishing with a one shot lead. These victories are added to a list of exciting finishes in professional golf this year as well as joining many other players who have patiently waited for their first professional tour win.” states Harris MacNeill, President and CEO of CHAMP / MacNeill Engineering. “CHAMP congratulates these players on their success and we look forward to seeing them win many more times in the future. We also thank them for choosing CHAMP spikes as their equipment choice for traction, comfort and durability.”

CHAMP is the premiere brand of MacNeill Engineering Worldwide, which has been designing and manufacturing athletic footwear components since 1931. The Company has been a pioneer in cleat technology since it introduced the world's first locking spike: SURE-LOK. Since then, MacNeill Engineering has grown to be The World Leader in the Sport Cleat industry with revolutionary offerings which include the CHAMP Q-LOK System®, the CHAMP TRI-LOK® system, as well as the most complete line of innovative spikes in the world, including the CHAMP Scorpion STINGER™ spikes and CHAMP ScorpionSpike®.
